MEN – WOMEN – ALL AGES
JOIN THE FUN!

Authors Donna Sheehan & Paul Reffell live on Tomales Bay in West Marin. Donna's seduction of Paul led them to research evolutionary behaviorism to find the roots of cultural bias against sexual assertion by women. Their insights remind women of their influence on men, give men the reassurance of an end to the gender blame game, and make relationships fun again.

Their book, Redefining Seduction combines science, intuition and a personal love story to begin the shift to a peaceful partnership society in which women and men in harmony complement each other's biological strengths.
